About WAM

After operating in several organizational forms since 1928, the Wyoming Association of Municipalities (WAM) was incorporated in 1967 as a nonprofit, nonpartisan organization representing and serving Wyoming's cities and towns. Every Wyoming citizen relies on quality services and facilities provided by cities and towns. This is especially true as 69 percent of Wyoming's population lives in a municipality.

WAM's mission is to advocate for cities' and towns' common interests and provide educational opportunities for WAM members. WAM is governed by a Board of Directors composed of mayors, council members, and representatives from Great Open Spaces City Management Association (GOSCMA), Wyoming Association of Municipal Clerks and Treasurers (WAMCAT), and Leadership Training Services Committee (LTSC).

WAM's objectives inform everything we do:

ADVOCATE

Advocate for the municipal interests of Wyoming's cities and towns regarding both state and federal legislation

TRAIN

Provide training opportunities to municipal officials and staff through the Local Government Leadership Program, which assists Wyoming communities with fundamental training

COMMUNICATE

Communicate all things related to municipal governance, training, outreach, and advocacy
